

SNAP Participation and SNAP-Accepting Farmers Markets

The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) is a federally and state funded program that provides food to low-income individuals and families. Proximity to SNAP-accepting farmers markets is vital to ensuring that the program is effective in promoting food security and supporting nutritional health by increasing access to fresh fruits and vegetables.

● SNAP-Accepting Farmers Market

Percentage of Population Participating in SNAP Per County

- 5%
- 10%
- 15%
- 20%
- 25%

0 30 60 120 Miles

F E E D V A
NUTRITION WITHIN REACH

Map Creator: Allison Bowers, in conjunction with FeedVA Data Sources: USDA FNS SNAP EBT Locator, <https://www.fns.usda.gov/snap/retailerlocator>, Food Research & Action Center Date Created: 12/11/18