Putting Healthy Food
Within Reach

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) provides food benefits to low-income families to supplement their grocery budget so they can afford nutritious and healthy food. SNAP is the largest anti-hunger program in the United States.

SUCCESS & IMPACTS

Provided over 882,000 Virginians help with grocery expenses

Brings $150 million dollars in federal benefits to Virginia each month

Every dollar spent on SNAP brings $1.5 in gross domestic product to Virginia

"I am deeply grateful for the SNAP benefits, which have been a lifeline during a challenging year. Managing the costs of healthcare, medications, diabetic supplies, and other living expenses has been incredibly difficult, but the recent increase in my benefits has made a significant difference in my ability to get by."
-Virginia SNAP Participant

ELIGIBILITY

Low-Income families, seniors, working individuals, and individuals with disabilities.
